

Web Site Privacy Policy

The Waukesha Public Library has created this privacy statement in order to demonstrate our firm commitment to the privacy interests of our users. The following discloses our information gathering and dissemination practices for our web site.

IP Address Use

We use your IP address to help diagnose problems with our server, and to administer our web site. For example, your IP address is recorded in our site traffic reports and is also used by our web traffic analysis software to gather broad demographic information (i.e., geographic location, etc.).

Submission Form Requirements

Our site's contact forms requires users to give us contact information (i.e., name and e-mail address). Contact information is used when a member of staff needs to reach the visitor upon the visitor's initial request. At no time will your contact information be sold, traded, leased or borrowed to third party vendors.

Links to Other Sites

Our site contains links to other sites to enhance the value and depth of our site generally. The Waukesha Public Library, is not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of such web sites, and offers external links only as a service to our site visitors and clients.

Security

Waukesha Public Library, does not locate sensitive or transmitted information submitted through our forms on our web server. All information submitted to us through our web site is held strictly confidential.

Privacy Policy Amendments

In the event that the Waukesha Public Library, introduces technologies or programs on our web site (i.e., e-mail lists, etc.) that would affect the privacy interests of our users, we will update and amend this privacy policy.
